For My Mother

*The love you gave me Mother
Is something I can't explain
It's full of patience, calm and care
Sometimes of a sacrifice and pain
I probably never tell you enough
Just what you mean to me
I probably should say it more
That you're the reason I am me
You were my cook, my playmate,
My nurse, my teacher
The list just doesn't end
And for everything I am truly grateful
First my Mother...Now my Angel*
